1. Geor - gie Por - gie, puddin' and pie,
2. Now, you know, my name is George,
3. I have come to hate that rhyme,
4. Geor - gie Por - gie, gristle and bone,

kissed the girls and made 'em cry,
and I ne - ver ate no Porge.
kids 'd tease me all the time.
made ar - range - ments on the phone.

When the boys came out to play,
All the girls I don't cry.
Till it could not is worse.
Now the news is co - min' down,

Geor - gie Por - gie that ran a - way.
So you know that poem's a lie.
So I wrote this se - cond verse.
Geor - gie Por - gie's back in town.
